Welcome to Scout Life, still the premier youth magazine from the Boy Scouts of America! It’s the same Boys’ Life generations have loved for 110 years, just with a different name. It is a magazine for a new generation of readers and the next generation of leaders. Scout Life believes all boys and girls deserve the opportunity to be their best selves today and tomorrow. It is the natural evolution of Boys’ Life.

Ours is the only youth magazine that publishes two demographic editions: the lower-demo edition (ages 5-10) and an upper-demo edition (ages 11-17). The average age of the full-run reader is 11½, so advertisers have the option to reach both age groups, or selectively target Cub Scouts or Scouts BSA youth and families.

700 thousand circulation 10 times per year 2.9 million readers
She just got home from basketball practice. He’s about to meet his friends at the baseball field before dinnertime. Mom and Dad said he could have his whole Cub Scout pack over for a game night this weekend, and she gets to go see the movie she’s been dying to see with her fellow pack-mates.

Both kids look forward to the next issue of Scout Life because it means they’ll have new stories, jokes and games to share with their friends and parents. He especially likes Cub Corner and the comics; she is competitive and obsessed with the activities like puzzles, mazes and word games.
MEET OUR OLDER READERS
UPPER-DEMO EDITION | SCOUTS BSA | AGES 11-17

Riding down the most hardcore trails. Shades on, hat backward (under his helmet, of course). Snapping pics on his smartphone while listening to his favorite tunes. He just finished his homework and even helped his little brother and sister with theirs, too.

After swim team practice, she makes her way back to the water for kayaking with her troop. Her goal is to be stronger and faster, and go farther than her last adventure on the water. They are Scout Life readers.

The content in this edition features information geared toward older Scouts. Sections like Merit Badge Minute and Cool Jobs keep readers coming back month after month.

ENGAGEMENTS THAT WORK

MARKETING & PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES
The Boy Scouts of America (BSA) builds programs that connect brands with American families. From multimedia advertising to sponsorships and retail opportunities, the BSA is your go-to source for creating customized marketing and partnership programs that effectively engage families with your brand.

EVENTS
Each year, BSA hosts high-energy youth- and adult-centered events. These international, national, regional and local events offer brands the unique opportunity to truly engage with loyal Scouts.

PROPERTIES
Our four national high-adventure bases and 800+ local properties throughout North America are used to build character, confidence and camaraderie. Sponsor specific venues and activities and experience these life-changing outings.

PROGRAMS
Our advancement, humanitarian, outdoor and educational programs reach young people in a positive, meaningful way. From sponsoring a merit badge to leading a STEM initiative, there are opportunities for program-related partnerships at every level of Scouting.

LICENSING
We offer a robust licensing program that reaches millions of American youth and families, repeatedly earning us a spot as one of the top 150 global licensors according to License Global magazine.

SALES
The BSA’s comprehensive, multichannel sales platform provides targeted opportunities for brands to engage families. Additionally, brands may partner with us to drive sales in third-party channels such as traditional retailers and e-commerce through marketing campaigns and promotions.

Scout Life combines the essences of Scouting (leadership, adventure, togetherness) with the wants of today’s youth (safety, belonging, resilience). Scout is who we are; Scout is what we do.

ADVERTISING@SCOUTING.ORG
Both editorial and advertising content are needed to make publications fun, exciting and beneficial for the reader. The advertising in BSA publications contributes to the reader’s value but cannot be counter to the goals and values of the organization.

1. Product endorsement by any member of BSA is not acceptable.
2. Any proposed copy or illustration involving the use of the BSA uniforms or insignia of Scouting must be submitted for review at least five days prior to the material due date.
3. It is within the discretion of the BSA to request samples for appraisal of items offered in advertising.
4. All advertising copy and artwork for Scout Life magazine must be of a nature that would be deemed acceptable and understood by children and in accordance with the principles and objectives of the BSA.
5. No advertising copy or artwork, or any elements of the product or service being advertised, may have sexual/violent over- or undertones.
6. All contest advertising must also be in compliance with U.S. Postal Service requirements of periodical mail. These requirements include a statement of “No Purchase Necessary” and a defined end date of the contest.
7. Movies, DVD, Gaming:
   a. Movies, DVD
      i. PG can run in Scout Life lower-demo or full run.
      ii. PG-13 can run in Scout Life upper-demo only.
   b. Gaming
      i. E10+ can run in Scout Life upper-demo or full run.
   c. Content including tobacco, alcohol or drugs will not be accepted.
   d. Content of an excessively violent or sexual nature will not be accepted, nor will content that can be viewed as offensive to our readership.
8. Advertising for products with alcohol or tobacco content are not acceptable.
9. Advertisements for firearms, ammunition, weapons, and all outdoor and camping gear must conform to the BSA safety manual and all applicable federal or state regulations. Ad creative must clearly emphasize safety and include prominent, legible safety language.
10. Not acceptable are any products the BSA Health and Safety advisors deem as potentially dangerous or undesirable, e.g., martial arts instruction and weapons, fireworks, sneezing powder, etc.
11. The publisher reserves the right to refuse advertising for any animal, fish or bird or species the BSA believes should not be collected or kept on exhibit or as a pet.
12. Pocketknives and folding knives with a blade-length limit of four inches may advertise in Scout Life. Switchblades, stilettos and knives resembling such are not acceptable.
